

Supporting our ministry through a bequest

Planning for the distribution of your estate after your lifetime can be a daunting task. After providing for your immediate family and loved ones, it's easy to continue supporting your extended family, including missionaries like us that you have faithfully supported over the years. A simple, very popular way to do this is through a bequest through the Wycliffe Foundation. Bequests can be designated specifically for missionary support or to any Wycliffe ministry of your choice.

This act of stewardship is a great way to extend your support for the advancement of God's Kingdom, ensuring that you will make a difference in the lives of those who wait to hear God's Word.
